

Austin Mayor's Committee for People with Disabilities

July 25, 2013

Congratulations! Your business or organization has won a 2013 Access Award from the Austin Mayor's Committee for People with Disabilities, (AMCPD). Here are a few details about the award and the upcoming award presentation.

- The award will be presented Thursday, August 8, 2013 at 5:30 pm. Please arrive by 5:15. The presentation is part of that day's City Council meeting agenda. City Hall is located at 301 West 2nd Street, Austin Texas 78701. The Council Chamber is on the first floor on the side nearest Lady Bird Lake. Park for free in the below ground lot with the entrance just north of Colorado and Cesar Chavez Streets.
- We ask that award winners limit representation to 1-3 people and that any remarks are kept short, 1 minute maximum, given that the awards program is rather short.
- You will have the opportunity to have your photo taken with the Mayor or the Council member who makes the presentation. AMCPD will mail the photo to you.
- If your business or organization would like to give us a short quote regarding accessibility for persons with disabilities for our awards press release, please respond to this email as soon as possible; July 30th, 2 pm at the latest.
- AMCPD's Austin Access Award is given annually in celebration of the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act, (ADA), which many consider to be our nation's second Independence Day. The award is given to businesses and organizations that not only meet the accessibility requirements of the ADA, but go above and beyond when providing goods and services to people with disabilities.
- Your business/organization will be listed on the AMCPD web page as one of our 2013 Access Award winners!
- For questions or to send regrets, please contact Dolores Gonzalez, AMCPD Staff Liaison, at 512-974-3256 or dolores.gonzalez@austintexas.gov

Thank you for your accessibility! We look forward to seeing August 8th, 5:15 p.m.

Yours truly,
